Approval to Extend the Hollering Place Negotiations Period

City Manager Rodger Craddock stated at the October 15, 2013 Urban Renewal meeting, the Agency authorized the City Manager to enter into negotiations with the Confederated Tribes of Coos, Lower Umpqua, and Siuslaw Indians (CTCLUSI) for the development of the Hollering Place property. On December 3, 2013, the Agency approved entering into an Exclusive Negotiation Agreement with CTCLUSI; based on the agreement the exclusive negotiation period ended March 7, 2014. Mr. Craddock stated negotiations were taking longer than expected but were progressing; noting he hoped to have an agreement for the disposition and development (DDA) of the Hollering Place property for the Agency's review in the near future. Staff requested to extend the exclusive negotiation period to July 31, 2014. Mr. Craddock stated
