

Currently there are no job openings. The City's policy is not to accept unsolicited resumes or applications. You may reapply when a job vacancy is advertised. The City places job openings with the State Employment Office, advertises in our local World Newspaper, and posts the job announcement on our web site.